To Tell the Truth

Think and Do

Play "I Spy" with a parent, other adult, or friend. Look and listen for lies on TV shows, movies, the radio, on the Internet, and in what you read. Each time you spot a lie—even the tiniest one—tell God you choose only to be truthful.

TRUTH!

Prayer Challenge

No one in this week's lesson acted like a winner, did they? Jacob and Rebekah lied, and Esau wanted to kill Jacob. God wants us to be truthful all of the time so we can be winners. When you talk to God each day, remember that he already knows everything about you. Because he loves you, he wants you to tell him the truth. So this week, make sure you practice telling the whole truth about everything.

Memory Verse

Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth (1 Corinthians 13:6).

Trading Card

On the trading card for this week, draw in the face of someone you know who has been truthful recently. Add some color to the card, and write at the bottom: Winners choose to be truthful. Cut out the card, and add it to last week's to build your collection!

And the Winner Is...

Truthful Person
